BOUNTY FRAUDS WILL NOT DOWN

Wm. R. Swan and Arthur Conlisk Again Under Ar-

OBTAINING MONEY BY FRAUD.

Is the Form of New Complaint, Made By First National Bank of Ogden.

Ogden, Nov. 20 .- William R. Swan and Arthur Conlisk were arrested Saturday evening on the charge of obtaining money by fraud, from the First National bank of Ogden. The warrants were served on them by Deputy Sher. iffs Sebring and Wilson, who took them before Judge Murphy and their bonds were fixed, Swan's at $500 and Conlisk's at $1,250. They both furnished bail, Thomas Feeny and W. B. Blosser for Swan and James Conlisk and S. W. Badeon for young Conlisk. Thirteen different counts are set out in the action, charging that these men passed fraudulent bounty warrants aggregating $1,200, on the bank. The arrest was the result of dissatisfaction over the attitude of the prosecution in the case against Swan, at which time Conlisk was used as a state's witness and was permitted to go free. Swan was a deputy county clerk and the was a deputy county clerk and the fraudulent bounty warrants to which Conslisk is alleged to have sworn passed through his hands. Swan was found guilty and was sentenced to five years in the state prison, but was released on $1,000 bond subject to an appeal that has been entered. The stand take en by the prosecution in permitting Conlisk to go unpunished created considerable dissatisfaction, and the First National bank, which cashed a number of the warrants, determined to take of the warrants, determined to take steps that would bring all parties to the transaction to justice. It is possi-ble that similar steps will be taken by some of the other banking institutions

TELEGRAPHER IN THE TOILS. P. B. Sawser Finds That the Way of The Transgressor is Hard.

Ogden, Nov. 20 .- P. B. Sawser, a telegraph operator, who was at one time employed at Palisades, on the line of the Southern Pacific was arrested at Perth, South Dakota, by Detective Joseph Jones, and brought to Ogden yes-terday. He is charged by the com-pany with the larceny of $85 worth of property belonging to the railroad company The circumstances surrounding the case are that Sawser was employed at Palisades as assistant agent and erator between Oct. 1 and 22, so employed he appropriated own use some goods shipped by freight to E. Saserno, valued at $85, but later he paid Saserno for the same, and thought that would settle the matter, but the railroad company learned of the misappropriation and had a warrant is-sued for his arrest. He was traced to Perth and there arested.

He returned to Ogden without requisi-tion papers, and will endeavor to have the matter settled up without prosecu-tion. The defendant appears to be a young man who desires to do what is right, but misfortune befei him, and he did wrong. An endeavor was made to locate Supt. Manson last evening, but as he was out on the road he could not be seen concerning the matter.

BURGLARS MAKE A CALL.

The home of George Shorten, situated on Shorten avenue, was entered by burglars last night, while the family was out to church. The burglars was out to church. The burglars broke the screen from the window, pried open the window and crawled into the house. Once inside they thoroughly ransacked the place, but were evidently only after money, as a pair of diamond ear rings and other jewelry were not taken. The only thing missing was a purse containing some small change, also a box, which, however, contained only a quantity of love letters. The box they thought it contained money is believed the work was that of pro-fessionals. The police have been in-vestigating the case, but have little hope of locating the burglars.

BRONCHITIS

Druggists Druehl & Franken Tell the People Quickest Means to Cure it.

Asked one day in his store the question, "What is good for bronchitis?" Mr. Druehl of the above firm, answered, "For years old fashioned cod liver oil has been known to possess the most remarkable curative and healing properties for threat, bronchial, and lung troubles of anything known to medicine, but on account of the grease which enveloped its curative principles, it has been impossible for many people to take enough of it into their systems to combat a thoroughly set-tled disease without clogging the system and upsetting the stomach

"Now, however." continued Mr Druehl, "we have Vinol, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, without a crop of oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and physicians agree that it is the greatest cure for all throat, bronchial and lung troubles known to med-
